Theme Parks introduction

Disney Magic Kingdom

The Magic Kingdom, as the name suggests, it is a place full of magic and dreams. It is very suitable for Children and seniors. There are romantic Cinderella Castle, Vivid Disney character, beautiful fairy tale, and celebrate the magic & wishes nighttime spectacular. You will have a unforgettable memories.

Disney Epcot

EPCOT will be the most relax park. The floor space and rides are less the Magic Kingdom, so guests will also less than the Magic Kingdom. But the EPCOT will definitely give you the unprecedented future tour. And there are 11 simulated countries building, can provide an overseas trip.

Disney Hollywood Studio

Do you know how American movies produce those shocking scenes? Do you know how to produce stunts in cars? Do you want to experience the scene and make computer graphics? You must come to Hollywood studio, and enjoy the Fantastic!

Disney Animal Kingdom

Do you remember Hakuna Matata (the lion king)? You can have Festival of the Lion King and Finding Nemo- the Musical two shows in Animal Kingdom. And you also can close to Animals and enjoy the Pandora- the World of Avatar.

Universal Studio

It's the world's premier movie and TV based theme park. Universal Studios Florida inspires its guests to "ride the movies", and it features numerous attractions and live shows. The park is one component of the larger Universal Orlando Resort

Island of Adventure

Opened in 1999, this park is one of two that make up the Universal Studios Orlando. The park is split into seven theme areas, including the Wizarding World of Harry Potter, based off that beloved series of books. Brand-new Skull Island: Reign of Kong was opened in the summer of 2016.

SeaWorld

SeaWorld Orlando is one of most popular theme parks in the world. Most famously, it is home to the Shamu killer whale show, but it is home to a litany of other sea life, including sharks, dolphins, stingrays, flamingos, and pelicans.

Aquatica Orlando

This sister park of SeaWorld opened in 2008, making it one of the newest Orlando parks. Themed after the South Pacific, the park has two wave pools, a number of slides, animal habitats, and much more.

Disney's Typhoon Lagoon

The most-visited water park in the entire world, Typhoon Lagoon is also home to the largest outdoor wave pool on the planet. Every 90 minutes, a loud, deep noise announces the coming of a six-foot wave in the Surf Pool.

Disney's Blizzard Beach Water Park

Disney's Blizzard Beach is an ski-resort-themed water park nested under the hot sun of Florida. The centerpiece of the park is Mount Gushmore, from which guests can speed down a number of exciting water slides.

Legoland Theme Park

The largest Legoland in North America is the one in Winter Haven, Florida. It contains more than 50 rides, including four roller coasters and one water ride. And of course, the park is dotted with amazing Lego sculptures.

Legoland Water Park

Legoland Water Park is a water park area in Legoland California. Construction began in September 2009. It opened on May 28, 2010. It is located next to the buildings in Fun Town. It is the first Legoland to feature a waterpark.

Volcano Bay

A water park constructed as part of Universal Orlando Resort™ in Orlando, Florida. It will replace Wet 'n Wild as Universal Orlando's water theme park, and will be the first constructed by Universal Orlando itself.

Special Tours

(Departure Every day, Minimum 3PP)

1-Day Kennedy Space Center Tour

The visitor's center at NASA's Kennedy Space Center in Cape Canaveral, Florida was founded in 1967 and sees more than 1.5 million visitors every year. Interestingly, the facility has been completely financially independent since 1995, meaning it receives no government funding. The Complex is also home to the Apollo/Saturn V Center, whose centerpiece is a restored Saturn V launch vehicle, and the US Astronaut Hall of Fame, which is focus on the accumulation and display of personal astronaut artifacts.

Then go to St. Johns River, which is the longest river in the U.S. state of Florida and its most significant one for commercial and recreational use. At 310 miles (500 km) long, it winds through or borders twelve counties, three of which are the state largest. The drop in elevation from headwaters to mouth is less than 30 feet (9 m); like most Florida waterways, the St. Johns has a very low flow rate 0.3 mph (0.13 m/s) and is often described as "lazy". Taking the airboat, you can find tap birds, alligators, pythons here. We'll be back to hotel around 6:00pm.

Gulf of Mexico Beach and Clearwater beach 1-day tour

In the morning, passengers will be picked up in Orlando and Kissimmee. We will then drive to Clearwater Beach for an early lunch before boarding our boat and heading into the Gulf of Mexico for a Fishing Trip. As long as our catches meet the minimum length and weight requirements, they are ours to keep! After four hours out at sea, we will return to the marina, where passengers can have their fish cleaned and fileted by a professional. We will return to the pickup points at night.

St. Augustine and airboat 1-day tour

St. Augustine is a city on the northeast coast of Florida. It lays claim to being the oldest city in the U.S., and is known for its Spanish colonial architecture as well as Atlantic Ocean beaches like sandy St. Augustine Beach and tranquil Crescent Beach. Anastasia State Park is a protected wildlife sanctuary. The Castillo de San Marcos is a 17th-century

Spanish stone fortress with views of the St. Augustine Inlet. You can choose to take the bay cruise and city cableway are good approaches to feel the entire old city.

Then go to St. Johns River, which is the longest river in the U.S. state of Florida and its most significant one for commercial and recreational use. At 310 miles (500 km) long, it winds through or borders twelve counties, three of which are the state largest. The drop in elevation from headwaters to mouth is less than 30 feet (9 m); like most Florida waterways, the St. Johns has a very low flow rate 0.3 mph (0.13 m/s) and is often described as "lazy". Taking the airboat, you can find tap birds, alligators, pythons here. We will be back to hotel around 6:00pm.
