D1: Seattle

The Jade City Seattle is the largest city in the northwestern United States, the 15th largest metropolitan area in the United States, and is considered to be the fastest growing major city in the United States, located in Evergreen - Washington.

[Pioneer Square] Seattle's origin, one of America's largest historic buildings.

[Parker Market] Seattle's most important tourist attraction, with the world's largest coffee chain Starbucks first store, the world's most disgusting attractions - chewing gum wall, throwing fish show fish stalls and other famous attractions.

[Space Needle] Seattle landmark building, standing on top of the tower, not only can see the landscape of the entire Seattle city center, you can also see the Olympic Mountains, Cascade Mountains, Mount Rainier, Elliott Bay, nearby islands and so on.

[Chihuly Garden and Glass Museum] led the blown glass industry into the field of large-scale sculpture. The famous American glass artist, Chihuly, is famous for his unique style of work.

[EMP Experience Music Project Museum] is dedicated to the history of pop music, science fiction and popular culture and explores the museum.

[Boeing Factory] into the world's largest single building, the depth of experience in the whole process of aircraft manufacturing, feels Boeing corporate culture.

Hotel: Red Lion / Quality Inn / Comfort Inn / Hampton Inn or similar

D2: Mt. Rainier National Park

Mt. Rainier is the fifth national park in the United States, the first known as the Indians near the tahoma, meaning the sacred mountain. It is the highest volcano in the United States, more than 2500 meters above the peak of the mountain, more than 600 meters higher than Japan's Mount Fuji, Washington is the first landmark, so its stalwart is also printed on the state's license plate. Rainier Snow Mountain has the largest single glacier except Alaska, as well as the largest ice system, 95% of the park is kept in its original state.

Go to Mt. Rainier to see the tallest volcano of the continental United States by visiting Christine Falls, Narada Falls, and Paradise Road.
